

STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIPS FOR ASIA

Below is a list of scholarships for study abroad in Asia. Please click on the links to find out specific details and requirements for each scholarship.

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship

<http://www.iie.org/en/Programs/Gilman-Scholarship-Program#.V7XEB5MrJEI>

Applicants must be Federal Pell Grant recipients. The scholarship is open to all majors.

Bridging Scholarship for Study Abroad in Japan

<http://www.aatj.org/studyabroad/japan-bridging-scholarships>

This scholarship is specifically for students studying in Japan for a semester or a year.

Critical Language Scholarship Program

<http://www.clscholarship.org/>

The CLS Program is a program of the US Department of State.

Freeman ASIA Awards for Study in Asia

<http://www.iie.org/programs/freeman-asia#.V7XNg5MrJEI>

These awards were created to increase the number of US students studying in Asia. Freeman-ASIA accepts applications from U.S. citizens or permanent residents who demonstrate financial need to study abroad in East or Southeast Asia.

NSEP Boren Scholarship

https://www.borenawards.org/boren_scholarship/basics.html

National Security Education Program for students studying a critical language.

SIRE

<http://college.emory.edu/home/academic/research/sire/>

Grant for undergraduate research during the summer, spring, and winter.

Summer Financial Aid Awards

<http://www.studentaid.emory.edu/>

All Emory undergraduates who qualify for need-based aid during the regular academic year are considered for a summer aid award after registration in Emory summer study abroad classes. No separate application is required. Contact the Office of Financial Aid for more information.