New Scholarship for Emory Summer Chinese Studies Program in Beijing
Deadline: March 1, 2013

The Chinese program in the Department of Russian and East Asian Languages and Cultures is very pleased to announce Scholarships to selected students who will participate in Emory Summer Chinese Studies Program in Beijing in 2013.

The Emory Summer Chinese Studies Program, offered through the Department of Russian and East Asian Languages and Cultures, provides students an exciting opportunity to study Chinese language, culture, and history in Beijing, China’s dynamic capital and site of the 2008 Olympic Games. The program collaborates with the prestigious Beijing Normal University, offering courses on Chinese language at all levels and a course on Chinese culture and society taught in English. No knowledge of Mandarin Chinese is required. For more information about this program, please visit CIPA website: http://cipa.emory.edu

Five scholarships will be awarded in the amount of $500-$1,000, depending on students’ academic merits and financial needs. The scholarship can be used towards international travel, program fee, or tuition associated with Emory Summer Chinese Studies Program. The selection will be based on financial needs and the following factors:

• The appropriateness of the student's plan of study to his/her overall academic plan
• The quality of the match between the student's goals and the opportunities that the program offers, and
• The strength of the student's preparation at Emory.

To be eligible the scholarship, students must:
• Be enrolled as an Emory student
• Have and maintain at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA.
• Return to Emory for at least one semester or more after the completion of the program
• Have applied and been accepted to Emory Summer Chinese Studies Program in Beijing.

To apply, students must complete and submit the following:
• Cover sheet
• Resume or C.V.
• A one page essay explaining reasons, goals and plans for studying abroad in China
• 2 Letters of recommendation from Emory faculty familiar with you and your work
• Academic Transcript

Deadline for this scholarship is March 1, 2013. Applications must be received in hard copy by 5 pm on the posted deadline by the REALC office (202 Modern Languages building). Only completed applications will be considered.
